Monachira Camp offers a diverse range of activities that highlight the unique ecosystems of the Okavango Delta:

- Water-based safaris: Explore the intricate waterways via motorboat or traditional mokoro canoe, providing close-up encounters with aquatic wildlife and bird species.
- Island nature walks: Guided walks on the delta's islands offer opportunities to observe flora and fauna up close; participants must be at least 16 years old.
- Game drives: Limited land-based safaris allow guests to track iconic African wildlife, including elephants, lions, leopards, and the elusive sitatunga antelope.
- Birdwatching: The camp's proximity to the Gudigwa heronries makes it a haven for bird enthusiasts, with sightings of herons, egrets, storks, and the rare Pel's fishing owl.
