HWANGE NATIONAL PARK

DETEEMA SPRINGS

Hwange's Untamed North

Remote, wild and wonderfully uncrowded, Deteema Springs reveals a very different side of Hwange. Granite kopjes, natural springs and secluded waterholes create one of the park's finest walking safari destinations and support one of its highest lion densities. Wildlife gathers at the freshwater spring in front of camp throughout the day, while ancient petroglyphs, fossilised trees and a nearby hot spring add another dimension to the experience.

Perfect for: Guests seeking a remote, adventurous Hwange safari with exceptional walking and fascinating landscapes.

Access: Robin's Airstrip (40 mins drive)

Combine With:

- Verney's Camp: 30 mins flight
- Victoria Falls: 20 mins flight
- Mana Main (for Ingwe Pan or Mana River Camp): 1 hr 50 mins flight

VERNEY'S CAMP

The Beating Heart of Hwange

Situated in a private concession in central Hwange, Verney's Camp offers classic big game viewing in one of Africa's great elephant landscapes. Teak forests, open grasslands (vleis) and iconic waterholes create exceptional wildlife viewing from camp, while game drives, walking safaris and night drives in a more secluded area of central Hwange provide an exceptional experience.

Perfect for: Travellers wanting Hwange's classic elephant and big game safari with exclusive activities and easy wildlife viewing.

Access: Manga Airstrip (1 hr drive)

Combine With:

- Verney's Camp: 30 mins flight
- Victoria Falls: 40 mins flight
- Mana Main (for Ingwe Pan or Mana River Camp): 2 hr flight

Hwange intercamp transfers: as the driving time between Deteema Springs and Verney's Camp can exceed 5 hours, only air transfers are available to connect these contrasting areas of Hwange.

MANA POOLS

MANA RIVER CAMP

The Spirit of Mana Pools

An intimate expedition-style camp on the edge of the Zambezi floodplains, Mana River Camp captures the romance of traditional safari. Walk with expert guides, canoe the Zambezi (water levels permitting), fish from camp or simply enjoy spectacular sunsets beneath the Zambezi Escarpment. Its small size also makes it ideal for exclusive use.

Perfect for: Travellers prioritising walking safaris, authentic wilderness and intimate safari experiences.

Access: Mana Main (45 mins to 1 hr drive)

Combine With:

- Verney's Camp: 2hr flight
- Deteema Springs: 1hr 50 mins flight
- Ingwe Pan: 1 hr 15 mins – 1hr 30 mins drive

INGWE PAN

Mana Pools' Hidden Sanctuary

Offering a more secluded and elevated Mana Pools experience, Ingwe Pan overlooks the last permanent freshwater pans for thirsty wildlife moving north towards the Zambezi River. As the dry season progresses, elephants and predators congregate around the pan, creating exceptional viewing from camp. Combined with a private concession, bush dinners and easy access to the floodplains, Ingwe Pan blends wilderness with comfort.

Perfect for: Guests wanting the wildlife of Mana Pools with added privacy, comfort and outstanding dry season game viewing.

Access: Mana Main (30 to 40 mins drive)

Combine With:

Verney's Camp: 2hr flight
Deteema Springs: 1hr 50 mins flight
Mana River Camp: 1 hr 15 mins – 1hr 30 mins drive
