MACHABA
CLASSIC SAFARI CAMPS
BOTSWANA & ZIMBABWE

Est. 2012

Your adventure begins in a timelessly unspoiled setting with sunset views stretching to distant horizons of the Okavango Delta. Witness the raw, untouched beauty of the open bush, widely acknowledged as the predator capital of the world. The region promises up-close views of unique wildlife and flourishing vegetation. Glide through the maze of channels, islands and opaque lagoons on a traditional mokoro dugout canoe and enjoy the beauty of the Okavango Delta.

Your safari ends in the Hwange National Park which boasts over 100 species of mammals and more than 400 birds (with a supporting cast of innumerable insects, spiders amphibians and reptiles – including the world famous Presidential elephants). The game viewing is superb and the teeming herds of sable, elephant, giraffe, impala, zebra and wildebeest give a hint of the richness of southern Africa's wildlife in bygone days.

Experience the Delta & Hwange...

LITTLE MACHABA

Offering a more private safari experience this intimate camp has only four spacious safari tents (two being family tents). Nestled under large riverine trees, the tents are set on timber decks and offer expansive views over the wide plains which lead to down to the Khwai River – a favourite 'hang-out' for herds of elephant. Based in a private concession, guests can experience wildlife up-close with guided walking safaris, relaxed mokoro trips and night safari drives were the nocturnal side of the Okavango is discovered ensuring a unique safari.

VERNEY'S CAMP

Situated within the central side of the popular south-eastern part of Hwange National Park, Verney's Camp is a private concession of 10,000 hectares. It is in an extremely remote part of the National Park that is neither frequented, nor can it be accessed by regular Park visitors. Ten tents are tucked under the shady teak trees bordering the open waterhole in front of the camp. Verney's Camp is a beautiful amphitheatre fringed by teak forest that opens up onto an impressive waterhole that is a playground to the famous elephant herds of Hwange.
